2 Years Updates

Includes:

- Extended 2 years warranty
- Extended 2 years software free updates
- MaxiVCI V200 Bluetooth VCI
- TPMS Activation & Programming

The MaxiSYS MS906SPRO TS, has all a lower price tag to the MS909 but still has the extra benefits on being DoIP and CAN-FD compatible. What's more, the MS906SPro TS just got an upgrade and can now program Autel 433mHz, 315mHz and Bluetooth MX Sensors. MS906SPRO TS continues to have the same advanced software functionality, which allows user to access Autel remote expert cloud. The MS906SPRO TS can be further optimised with our ADAS software.

The MS906SPro TS is excellent for busy workshop or technician, that requires superior coverage and capability, but at a very affordable price that isn't offered by our competitors. It will perform thousands of functions and with new updates being released weekly, we ensure your advanced MaxiSYS is 'best in class'.
